Sir,

This is to submit before you that, recently, I have been to Chhindwara for three days. On dated March 13, 2026, when I was on morning walk near Chhota Talab, I noticed a sign board showing Chhota (छोटा) as Chota (चोटा)talab. The English version of Chhindwara is written everywhere correct as CHHINDWARA (छिंदवाड़ा) because it is not Chindwara (चिंदवाड़ा).

There is much difference in Ch (च) and Chh (छ) in Hindi. The present generations (Z, alpha, beta) are not using their common sense seriously or the common sense is vanishing very fast..

So kindly instruct your sub-ordinates to mention / write everywhere, the English version of Chhota (small) as Chhota NOT as CHOTA.

Regards
